On Veterans Day during a recent year in the United States, I learned something new about the history of human warfare, something that I found quite thought-provoking. I'd like to share my discovery with you in this tract.

On that not-so-long-ago day of remembrance, I for the first time learned a lot of details about one of the major battles of the Korean War. It all related to a vicious conflict that had occurred on a field of extraordinary hardship, an episode of war which is called the Battle of Chosin Reservoir. It was revealed to me as clearly a time of great suffering and heroic endurance for all the idealistic American and Allied soldiers of that battle, who had gone to Korea and fought so valiantly to win the freedom of South Korea.

This episode of warfare is currently regarded by many of our military historians to have been the hardest battle ever fought in all of our world's history.

It is reported to have been probably the most difficult battle ever fought on the planet Earth, at least by the appraisal of most of our American students of military history.

It is frequently called “the most savage battle in the history of modern warfare.” The episode of American history that is now known to us as the Battle of Chosin Reservoir is an incident that occurred in 1950, amid the vicissitudes of the Korean War. The environmental conditions on that field were fierce... more terrible than I can even imagine. It was one of the coldest nights ever in the history of Korea. The air of their world, in that faraway location, was cold in the most extreme way.

It was worse, I think, than the time George Washington and his troops had spent at Valley Forge. There the winter cold had been a shockingly severe hardship for all of the general’s troops, as they persevered and sought to gain a victory in the American Revolutionary War.

I know that it was far, far worse than the cold of that one night I spent at Lobuche, Nepal, atop the mountains that are the Himalayas. Then I had tried without much success to fall sleep at an altitude of 16,150 feet, shivering repeatedly from the intense cold. It was the coldest night that I myself had ever experienced, in that icy-breathed month of December 1979... and I had gotten sick during that night, coming down with a case of Altitude Sickness at that particular point in my journey.

Perhaps it was even worse than the night on Mount Everest when Dr. Beck Weathers had nearly frozen to death. The good doctor had almost died on Everest, like so many other victims of the mountain. Miyolangsangma, that icy siren who lures humans to its top... where she sits enthroned as the demon-goddess of Everest, must have been laughing at him. That night Beck Weathers had survived, even though he lost his hands and his nose to frostbite. Weathers had survived Everest, but only after amputations were completed; he would afterward be a walking casualty of that battle with Everest.

There were similar casualties among those soldiers who survived Chosin Reservoir, even though a number had made it back to the United States.

The small group of Allied soldiers who survived the freezing conditions of that combat are honored veterans who now call themselves “the Chosin Few.” Many U.S. soldiers and Allied troops did not survive the fierce conditions of that episode in the conflict of the Korean War... but a remnant had made it to safety. The story of their heroic endurance in the intensely hostile environment of the Battle at Chosin Reservoir is an account that could easily bring a patriot to tears.

One is saddened to realize that good men must sometimes go through such an awesome amount of suffering and torment in our world. But at the same time, one is amazed and inspired to know that some of them have shown the strength of will to remain faithful to Christ... and to battle courageously for what is Right... even in such horrid conditions as that.

The Battle of Chosin Reservoir placed a mere 15,000 Allied ground troops against 120,000 Chinese troops that were in the ten divisions of the opposing force. The Chinese soldiers, alongside the North Korean troops, planned to wipe out the Allies, killing every one, down to the very last man. It looked like they would be able to do so. The Chinese officers told their troops to utterly annihilate the U.S. Marines, the U.S. Army, and all of the Allied soldiers, instructing the Chinese soldiers that they should kill the enemy like you would kill a snake in your house.

The outlook at this moment was not very bright for the U.S. Army troops and the U.S. Marines, nor for the Allied soldiers who were derived from the 21 other member countries of the force representing the United Nations.

The night of the Chinese assault was the coldest night on record in Korea, getting down to 48 degrees below zero. The American and Allied soldiers found themselves in 3 to 4 feet of snow, so they could hear the feet of the Chinese troops crunching on the snow as they were coming up to get them. Veterans say it was a real nightmare. When that sun went down, it got dark, and the Allies knew just what was coming: The Chinese troops were coming in to get them. It looked like the Allies could be wiped out, down to the very last man.

One vet says, “You could hear the screams in the night, and you knew somebody was getting bayoneted, and you couldn’t tell whether it was them or us.” Another says that this was his first battle, and to see so many of our guys dead—and even arms and legs breaking off in the freezing cold—it was terrible. He thinks he cried because it was so bad.

The good thing about it, they figured, was that their wounded wouldn’t bleed to death as easily, because the wounded men’s blood would freeze rapidly in the intense cold...

They were scared, and they knew the guys around them were scared too, but they knew they couldn’t let each other down. Later, one survivor would claim that this was probably the greatest bunch of men that he'd ever been around in his life. Another says that as long as he's alive, he doesn't want it to be forgotten. The Allied soldiers served their countries with honor and distinction.

Ironically, many people back home were inclined to denigrate the Korean War as merely “a police action.” Some folk had referred to it for many years afterward as “the Forgotten War,” even though 54,000 people on the Allied side had died there in a determined resistance against Marxist imperialism. The vets who served in the Korean War know that they saved a nation from tyranny. There are more than 40 million South Koreans who are free today because they did it.

Today there are 100% of the South Korean people who are able to enjoy democratic liberty, and about 35% or more of their population is now Christian— that's the highest portion among all the nations of the Orient. The forces of Marxist atheism did not succeed in their efforts to conquer the more than 40 million people in South Korea. Many in that population have not only political freedom, but freedom in Christ— what Martin Luther called “Christian liberty” and “the liberty of a Christian.”

It's all a result of the heroic actions of our military during the Korean War, with a little help from some influential Presbyterian missionaries. These, however, had already traveled from the U.S. to Korea at a much earlier date, during the century of the 1800's.

Some of those Allied soldiers probably realized that they were fighting the forces of Satan, as they carried on their struggle against the Dark Side, but I suspect that many of them never understood how totally they were involved in a war of Good versus Evil.

When it was over, out of the 15,000 Allied troops involved in the battle, more than 3,000 had died. One vet says that in his particular platoon, there were only 3 who were still standing when he finally left Korea. Six thousand were wounded, and thousands of others suffered a severe case of frostbite. This left many of the veterans disabled and afflicted with multiple amputations.

Yet as another vet has said, "It's just amazing that anybody at all walked out of there without any wound and without being killed."

Indeed, the fact that they were not wiped out to a man makes for a strange kind of victory, since their atheist enemies so greatly outnumbered them. It could easily have been a massacre instead. The protection provided for them seems of Divine origin.

It even reminds one just a bit of the way in which God gave miraculous protection to the army of Israel and to His Chosen People, as Joshua led his powerful force against the pagan armies that surrounded him, penetrating deep into the enemy territory. The ancient army of Joshua served as the Hand of God's Wrath against the abominable pagans in that area. But our Allied force in Korea had sought only to preserve human liberty, to allow a region to remain free of Marxist tyranny and Satanic atheism.

When the Battle of Chosin Reservoir was finally over, the American soldiers and the Allied troops started to gather up their wounded, the ones who were still alive, and the corpses of the dead. They saw then the extreme cost of their fight for freedom.

The troops wanted to take most of their dead out with them, so they started lifting the dead bodies and tying them to the fenders and to the hoods of the trucks. By this time, all of the bodies were thoroughly frozen. Some of them actually began to break off arms and legs as they were being lifted to the trucks. The bodies would just break apart.

One vet says that he helped these guys that had to do that job. He remembers seeing three corpses sitting together, and says he could swear that they were praying when they froze to death.

He says, “And we picked them up, and brought them out and put them on the truck. That was... that was bad.”

It was a shock for him to see all these many men, who were dead soldiers and Marines, reduced to frozen corpses and broken fragments. These were good men who had died horribly, soldiers of valor who had fought on the side of Right.

But it is not the only such case on record, and this is not really so surprising an occurrence. The historical record of Earth shows that some Christian victims of the U.S.S.R. died in similarly bizarre conditions. There was a group of Christians who were taken outside of one Marxist prison for their execution, where they were all stripped naked and forced to freeze to death in the extreme cold of the outdoor environment of Siberia.

The Marxist officer who was put in charge of the execution was forced to watch them slowly die by freezing, but he was amazed to see them singing Christian hymns together as they died. The officer was so moved by the faith of these Christian martyrs that he later recanted of his Marxism and became a Christian himself.

It's not at all surprising that Christian soldiers should die while praying to their God. It's an honor to have served with such men, and we should always remember their example.

The Battle of Chosin Reservoir demonstrates the vast and horrible scale of the Cosmic Warfare that is going on all over our planet, year after year, through all the centuries of human history.

And it sets an admirable example for all of us who claim to be “Christian soldiers” in the modern world.

The American and Allied soldiers there in Korea were fighting in defense of God-given Freedom. They did this so that some of the people on the Korean peninsula— a remnant at least— would end up not being enslaved and tormented by an intolerant and totalitarian dictatorship. The North Korean Marxists and the Chinese Communists who assisted them were devoted adherents of a secular and “anti-God” religion, a religion that came straight from Satan.

The Communist faith called for the destruction and removal of all other religious beliefs. In the iron grip of fanatical Korean Marxists, every other religious view would be quickly suppressed or eliminated. If the Marxist Communists got control of the entire peninsula, then no one would be safe from totalitarian abuse— least of all the believers of God and His Son Jesus Christ.

Communist rule would be especially injurious to Korean Christians in the North and South regions of the peninsula, because their religion would be instantly outlawed. Everyone who refused to recant the Christian faith would be immediately imprisoned, tortured, and rapidly executed.

Why would a “secular” thought-system be so antagonistic, so hostile toward any sign of religious belief? Only because it was itself a religion! The North Korean soldiers, like the Chinese soldiers who were allied with them, already nourished a very powerful and exclusive faith of their own: Fanatical Communism. The Communists allowed an individual to have belief only in the religion of Marxism.

Marxist Communism is a totalitarian and anti-Christ religion that makes every possible effort to eradicate Christianity from the face of the Earth. Today there are some other religious cults in our world that are equally anti-Christ, and equally determined to exterminate what they consider to be the “heresy” of Christianity.

As I considered the situation of the soldiers who fought in the Korean Conflict, I started to conceive those American soldiers in Korea as even greater heroes than I had before imagined. I realized that they can be better viewed as Christian soldiers and martyrs in the war against the armies of Satan.

The American and Allied soldiers, in the case of this Korean combat, fought on the side of Righteousness against the Forces of Evil in our world, even though some of the combatants may not have clearly seen or recognized that fact at the time. Many of them already knew this to be true, and they were correct in the assumption. It was indeed a simple case of black and white, Good versus Evil.

They were indeed “the Chosen Few,” the individuals chosen by God to assist Him in the battle against Evil. They were fighting against Satan, who has waged a millennia-long War Against God, in defense of the Truth of God. The “Chosen Few” were not merely the Americans who survived this battle, but all those soldiers who fought against the Marxist Communists during the Battle of Chosin Reservoir.

All of the Christian soldiers who were involved in the Battle of Chosin Reservoir— even the ones who were not survivors, the ones that died on that frozen battlefield in Korea— were loyal warriors on God’s team and may be seen as “the Chosen Few” of God. They were all chosen by God to fight on behalf of Righteousness and religious liberty... even though they had to do so in a foreign land.

In a similar way, the Christian soldiers of our modern-day Earth are a war-weary population that has suffered much grief and lots of physical abuse. They may even feel that they have had little success on this planet. But they are nevertheless the chosen remnant of God... the few and the humble. The ones hand-picked by God Himself, chosen by the Hand of God.

They are the ones who will ultimately survive this world's combat... and make it all the way to the new Kingdom of God.

Let us next examine the facts of world history, and we will then see just why this is so.

What is the nature of all this Cosmic Warfare that we see all around us— this Universal conflict which devastates the Earth and the lives of its inhabitants?

I would say that there have been two major religious forces, one Good and one Evil, that have dominated all of world history since the days of Adam and Eve. These two forces produce faiths which are constantly engaged in a violent warfare that shakes the whole Earth--this is a Cosmic Warfare that tears apart the world and does endless injury to the inhabitants of our planet.

On the one hand is the faith of the God-Followers, and on the other is the religion of Rebellion... the religion of the Great Lie. The Great Lie Religion is the one which Satan himself has founded, and it has branched out in many directions over the centuries of Earth's history.

The religion of Satan eventually became the religion of ancient Babylon, and it was an evolutionary religion, one based on a belief in endless deaths and endless violence. It supported such non-Biblical ideas as the survival of the strongest and an "evolution" of humans toward "godlike powers." These concepts were transformed into a variety of false religions with a multitude of idols and false gods, such as those in Hinduism and in the mythology of ancient Greece and Rome. As Naziism, as Marxism, and as fanatical religious cults, they have promoted the use of violence and terror in the accomplishment of their totalitarian aims.

These people form a hostile force, an evil army that will eagerly use violence, subterfuge, and immorality for the accomplishment of its goal. They have an everlasting hatred for God's People, and their goal, astoundingly, is revealed in their unfading desire to subdue and conquer the entire population of planet Earth. These soldiers are part of an anti-Christ force, following an anti-God power that wishes to dominate and control our entire world. They are enemies of Freedom, so they are haters of the United States, Britain, and all free nations.

God has given humans free will, so that we have an ability to choose for ourselves Good or Evil, Love or Hate, Life or Death, Truth or the Great Lie of Satan. These enemies of God Almighty wish to destroy all freedom and freedom-lovers everywhere. But they especially despise Americans, Christians, and Jews. Their Unending Hatred opposes the Unfailing Love taught by Jesus Christ. They wish to kill, terrorize, and destroy all opponents and all opposing forces. So the Christian soldier must develop a suitable strategy for dealing with such a massive threat to the safety of Christians. The combat is already underway, and the warfare is on a worldwide scale.

The Chinese Communist warriors at the Battle of Chosin Reservoir were merely an extension of the Satanic religion... a further incursion of demons into the world of the Twentieth Century. The demons of Hell found many suitable hosts among the Marxist Communists of China and North Korea.

Naziism, Fascism, Marxism, and Terrorism are merely new faces for the Great Lie Religion, the faith of Satan. The New Age cults of our modern day are yet another representation of the Satanic religion. As incredible as it may seem, there are now countless millions of human beings on our Earth who are devoted followers of the Great Lie Religion. The religion of Satan—the religion of the pagans of ancient Babylon— still exists today as a faith in Death and Destruction. It has become the anti-God religion of our modern-day Nazis, Marxists, and terrorists.

These are not children of God; rather, they are the soldiers of Satan. They are disciples of their own father, who is the Father of Lies.

Fighting them isn't easy. It's not a pleasant job, but someone has to do it. There are hostile forces in our world that seek to destroy humanity.

There are people out there who hate our guts and hate the very concept of Freedom. They can't even imagine the idea of a Loving But Righteous God that we Christians choose to serve.

There is a massive enemy army arrayed against us, and it is composed of both demons and the many human followers of the Dark Lord... Satan, who is the Prince of Darkness and, as Jesus said, “the ruler of this world.”

This enemy army would like to see everyone on Earth under Satan's authority, to be forever slaves of his evil empire. Satan and his demons wish to see everyone on Earth dominated in the present time period, and they wish for everyone on Earth to ultimately join them in the Hellish fire that God has prepared for Satan, for the fallen angels, and for all the demons and devils that have plagued this Earth during the millennia of its history.

But we are the Christian soldiers of this Fallen World, and we stand against them in the Name of the Most High God!

We are the soldiers of Christ, the heros of God The Father, and His Son Jesus counts us as His brothers-in-arms against the Dark Forces. We are the pride and joy of the Father in Heaven, Who is our Lord and King. We fight till the end in the Holy Name of Christ, and we do not surrender to the powers of Darkness.

Though Satan's forces may maim and murder vast numbers of our comrades, we will never know a defeat by the Satanic Forces of this Earth. Our brethren may some day find our dead corpses frozen solid in a position of prayer— as happened already in hostile weather conditions for the battle at Chosin Reservoir— right in the middle of a vast carnage which is the Devil's work. But our fight is not in vain, and our sacrifice will be rewarded by the Lord of Heaven.

If we are killed for our belief in God and God's Freedom, we will die as we are still praying for salvation... knowing that the ultimate victory will belong to our God, Who is Lord and King of all the wide Universe!

Our Christ is the Hope of Humanity and the Rescuer of His followers. He will not fail us, but will get us safely to His Heaven... and to the New Earth that He has designed for us! Our spirits will survive all earthly warfare and will one day inhabit the glorious New Jerusalem, the magnificent City of God.

Our God ordained once that an evil world would be destroyed by water, and only Noah and his family survived that flood. Now it seems that His Enemy, Satan, is seeking to destroy the whole Earth with the fires of Hell.

If we are forced to step into that fiery furnace, we shall do so in the confidence that our God is fully able to rescue us from that fierce fire.

But even if our God chooses not to rescue us from the fiery furnace, let it be known that we will never bow down to the false gods of Satan, nor to any of the devils that serve him!

This was also said circa 600 B.C., when three young Hebrew men, having become captives of Babylon, stubbornly refused to submit to Babylon's false gods. These servants of the Most High God knew that the battle against evil is fought even till death, and they simply would not submit to Satan's power.

So said "Shadrach," "Meshach," and "Abednego," on that day, long ago, when all three were forced to step inside the Fiery Furnace of Babylon.

In captivity they were assigned Babylonian worship-names, so they were daily called “Shadrach,” “Meshach,” and “Abednego,” and yet they still refused to worship the false gods of Babylon! The Hebrew names of the three young men were Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah... and these names fit them much better. They were loyal warriors of the Only True God, the Most High King of the Universe.

Hananiah means “Jehovah has been gracious to me!” Mishael means “He who comes from God!” and “Who is like God!” Azariah means “He whom Jehovah helps!” These men knew their true identity quite well. They knew they would be rescued if God willed it so, because their Mighty God was fully able to rescue them. Or else... they would die for Him, as loyal servants and soldiers of Almighty God. Whenever necessary, and as God wills. If the Commander of the Heavenly Armies required proof of their loyalty, He would have it. They would never surrender, never bow down to the golden idols and false gods of Babylon.

So said Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah on that day, long ago, when all three were forced to step inside the Fiery Furnace of Babylon.

So say the Christian soldiers of today.

Whether the battle rages on a field of ice or a field of fire, we will never surrender to the destructive power of God's Adversary.

So here you have a war story of Ice and Fire. The battlefield of Ice has now been transformed into a battlefield of Fire.

Yet we never give up, and we will never surrender the earthly battlefield to the Dark Forces of God's Enemy. The enemies of Christ must not prevail in this field that we defend. The battle for Christian freedom and safety is one that is well worth our energy, our time, even our very lives.

In this time of Cosmic Warfare, we are the Chosen Few.

The Lord God Almighty is looking for a few good men (and women) to help Him in His battle against the forces of Darkness. If you repent of your evil ways and turn back to the Light (Jesus Christ, the Light of the World), He can use your service in the Great War, which is currently underway on Earth. He needs more soldiers, and He needs more recruits who have a courageous spirit like that of Joshua and Caleb!

God's Remnant is an army of loyal soldiers that survives all this supernatural warfare, and within this group of humans is a Special Forces preservation team that is the apple of God's eye. They are the devoted warriors of the Most High God, and they fight higher battles in His Holy Name. These soldiers get an exalted position with God and are individually chosen by Him—the Righteous King Himself carefully picks them out of the crowd.

These troops compose an elite corps that is destined for a special position in God's Developmental Program for His Universe. They are the Preservers. They are the salt of the Earth, and they reflect the Light of Christ in a world of Darkness. They fight against evil atrocities, struggling to conserve and protect the good things that can exist even in an evil world.

These are the ones who have joined God's army of Light and who are intensely loyal to Him. This is the overcoming remnant that will be victorious over our current world (which will one day be called Old Earth), and they are the ones whom God will rescue from trials and use to populate the paradise-planet of His New Earth.

The more massive population on our current Earth is that formed by the armies of Darkness, who mostly adhere to the Majority Opinion. These guys serve the Prince of Darkness, whom Jesus declared to be "the prince of this world"—whether they realize that fact or not!

But that team is headed for ultimate destruction, since they will share the same fate as Satan and his demons! They will first march over all the Earth causing a lot of damage, but ultimately they will suffer an eternal torment when they are consigned to Hell, a place of Outer Darkness where there will be only mental pain, weeping, and despair!

Hell is a place where the enemies of God will be trapped forever with their leader (Satan) and endless remorse. It's rather like an eternal Lunatic Asylum that will imprison all the enemies of God.

You may wonder why a Loving God (a God of Light) would allow such a thing as Hell to exist. Well, it's like this:

God created all humans and all the angelic beings in His Universe with an indestructible spirit that sees an endless life, and so they get to keep forever the undying spirit which resides within their outward forms. They stay alive for all time, infinitely... no matter how much they sin, no matter how evil or insane they may become. So God has to put the Evil One and all his followers SOMEWHERE, and this miserable Hell is where they will reside even after He recreates the Universe and produces the New Earth as a paradisiacal world of Light. In Hell they will know endless remorse, endless despair, and endless torment.

The Darkness which Satan, his demons, and his followers have so long promoted... then becomes the prison that will trap them for all of eternity. Don't fall into his trap, a black hole that is the Dark Pit of Hell.

God Almighty, the Holy and Righteous Leader of the armies of Light, is still looking for a few good followers. You can join His army by placing Jesus Christ, Who in the Trinity of God created our Universe, upon a throne at the center of your heart! He deserves that position and that kind of respect. He was first God The Son, but when born in human flesh He became the only sinless and righteous person who ever lived. Yet He sacrificed Himself on a cross for your sake, taking all guilt and sins upon Himself, in order that you and I—that all people— that whoever wishes for salvation might be rescued from the due punishment of sins.

The Bible teaches us that Jesus Christ is “the Sun of Heaven.” You can put Him on a throne in your heart, and you’ll then see Him light up your life!

All it really takes is a simple but sincere little prayer—one that you should make up in your own words. The prayer for deliverance and for God's leadership should come from your own heart!

Some important elements that you should include are:

- 1) your desire to turn away from the wrongness or evil of your past life, and your remorse over the sins of your previous life,
- 2) your desire for God's forgiveness and mercy through the act of sacrifice of His Only Begotten Son (Jesus Christ),
- 3) your desire to know God's leadership in your life,
- 4) your desire to learn more of God's truth through Bible study,
- 5) your desire to find fellowship with genuine believers.

Jesus said of the people of God that "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a net that God has cast into the sea, and it gathers of every kind: When it is full, it will be pulled up on the shore, where they will sit down to sort the catch, and they will collect the good fish in baskets, but the bad things will be thrown away. This is the way it will be at the end of the world: The angels shall come forth, and they will separate the unrighteous persons from among those justified by God . . ."

Excerpt from the book of Matthew, who was a constant companion of Jesus and his devoted disciple [13:47-50].

It's also important for all of us to remember this:

1) WE SPEAK TO GOD by our prayers.

2) GOD SPEAKS TO US by the words of Holy Scripture.

So we must try to read His words and His Book just as often as we possibly can!!

God wants to bless you for all your long efforts to understand this very confusing and difficult Universe in which we live— so let Him reward your search with the grace of His forgiveness and enlightenment!

More challenging than the battles of World War II...

More challenging than the battles of the Korean War, of the Vietnam War, or of any modern-day warfare on the Earth...

God's team battles Satan's demons for the souls of humanity.

As Christian soldiers, we know Jesus Christ is the only savior of humanity, the only source of hope for our planet. He is the Holy One Who ultimately wins the war for us. He is the Door to God and to God's Heaven, the Gateway to an Eternal Life with God. He is the only salvation possible for all the people of the Earth.

Be a soldier of Christ, and take a stand for virtue in a dark world. The King of Heaven will bless your work.
